You will be interested to hear that I am here - doubly interested because of the League & because we are on the same Continent. I am working here for my Committee but I expect to leave at the end of the week. I have a budget of thrilling things to tell you. I suppose I shall see you about Xmas. I hope Redlich gave you good news of me. We met twice. I cannot tell you on a P.C. what I think of him.

Yours always, Papa.

This is a glorious place - a very large warm lake surrounded by hills & pine woods & snow mountains in the back ground. The hotel is in a large park, right on the banks of the lake. - I'm quite brown ahead. I came here via Berlin, as I had to do some business there, & saw Kuch for a few minutes. He looks blooming! ## Lincoln Steffens

Farewell, dear friend, you who enlightened us
With laughter, would laugh gently that we grieved
In our farewell to one who fared so well
That life itself fares better since he lived.

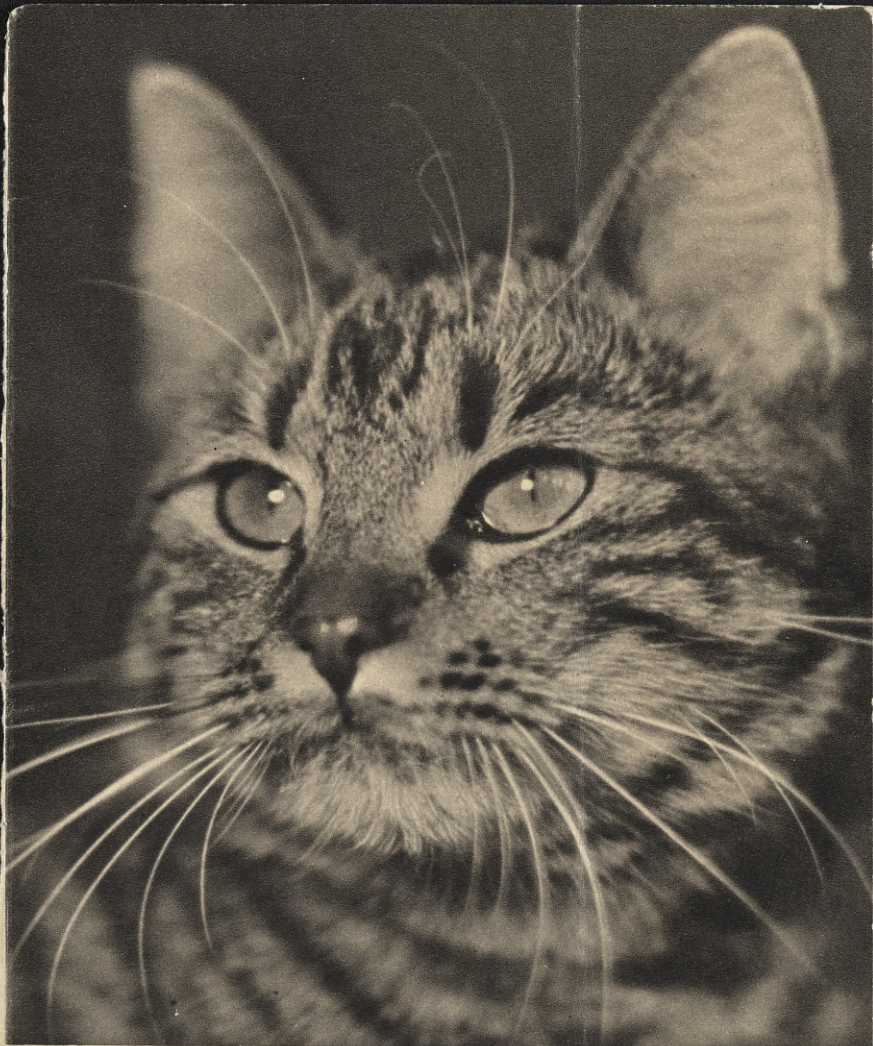

We grieve because your voice is stilled,
And yet we know that you will speak again
And always—there will be your words, your laughter
Immortal in the voice of man.

Courage is wiser for your life,
And truth is braver;
Farewell! you leave us—but you do not leave
The living, now or ever.

GREETINGS

Saturday - Apr 10 - 1937

I collected all I had to say & put it in a big envelope to show you later. - Somehow I feel the way this purry looks. Tonight again I feel good about you. Everyone gives me different advice - his music teacher thinks Pete ought to stay in ~~the~~ Carmel - none of his teachers want to lose him - Pete doesn't want to leave here - If you were to be in Hurd next fall, winter or early Spring I might as well stay here <sup>after the summer</sup> & write 2 books. Going over this stuff I've collected for 5 years there's really a book on the C-S in Calif practically written. I'd like to make it warm & human & emotional as well as factual & sociological and historical. Bring in Darcy like Killian's organizing & soon. The tale of Hurd alone! So you see - I see glimpses of a future daylight. I love you so dearly. F.
